

TAKE HOME POINTS

1. We should be very sobered by the sin of anger

- a. Anger disqualifies a person from spiritual leadership
- b. Anger destroys relationships (Spouse, Children, Friends, Employer)
- c. Anger hurts children
- d. Anger shapes children
- e. Anger leads to violence
- f. Anger can land you in prison or get you the death penalty
- g. Anger leads people to Hell

TAKE HOME POINTS

1. If you neglect the sin of anger it will grow not shrink

- a. Diagnose your heart by asking yourself:
 - i. “What am I willing to think about someone else?”
 - ii. “What am I willing to say to someone else?”
 - iii. “Am I assassinating someone’s character?”
- b. Do I wish that someone was dead?

2. Dignify people made in the image of God

- c. People you struggle with
- d. People you know who struggle with you

TAKE HOME POINTS

3. Dignify people made in the image of God

- a. People you struggle with
- b. People you know who struggle with you

4. Reconcile quickly

- c. Lean on the Gospel for hope with your anger
- d. Lean on the Gospel for hope to reconcile with others

