

TAKE HOME POINTS

Why pray in 2010?

• Pray to advertise God's lordship

- Praying portrays reliance and submission.
- God's glory not results should be your first goal for praying.
- Remember God is impartial and receives glory allowing both blessings and hardships.

• Pray to advertise your dependence on God

- Extreme circumstances are your opportunity for earnest prayer.
- Prayer aligns your will with God's will.

TAKE HOME POINTS

•Pray because God answers

- Pray believing God can and will answer – whether we can see it or not.
- We shouldn't presume to know God's answer.
- God's answer might surprise you. He may give you your specific desire or need and He may not.

